

Guidelines on Professional Titles for Music Therapists

In the UK some professional titles are protected by law and practitioners must be registered in order to use these titles legally. •Music Therapist• is a legally protected title under the Health Professions Order 2001. Only practitioners registered with the HCPC as Arts Therapists (Music Therapist) can use this title.

Registered practitioners are not required to use only this professional title. Rather, unregistered people are prohibited from using it. Practitioners are free to use other (non-protected titles) if they wish. However, BAMT provi
