

Tangent Funding Report

Kristen Macleod Smith

August 2020

The Tangent fund music therapy project began in January 2020 and face to face group sessions were delivered until covid-19 lockdown, where online methods of session delivery were provided. The project was titled "Baby Beats" and currently provides a music therapy group for mothers and their loneliness and providing an alternative way of group music making during a very difficult unprecedented time.

Kristen Macleod Smith